" Education is the most powerful weapon witch you can use to change the world."
-Nelson Mandela

"Message from the Principal".

I Would like to wish the students at Olympia Heights a wonderful testing year 2014-2015. You have been very well prepared by your teachers and I have no doubt that you will do great! Good luck to all of you. Remember to go to bed early the night before and to come on time to school. We have a hot breakfast ready for you so you won't have to worry that you will be late. As I always say, "Olympia Heights Is Number One!"

" Parents Recognition Award ."

March 5, 2015

Recognizing parents has been an important part of the life and culture of Olympia Heights Elementary school. One of our objectives is to recognize and honor outstanding OHE parents, volunteers, faculty, and staff through scholarships, awards, and endowments.

On Thursday, March 5, 2015, parents received a Certificate of Recognition at the OHE Parents Recognition Ceremony.

"African American Dance"

The history of African-American dance has played a critical role in forming many of the dance styles we know today. Modern dance, jazz, tap, swing, Lindy Hop, Charleston, hip-hop and even the waltz have all been influenced by African-American culture. On Friday, March 6, 2015, In support of African-American Culture, students attended a PTA Sponsored, African American Dance in the school cafeteria.
